

Personalized Handmade Vedic Talismans

Talisman, Amulets or Charms, Tabeej / Yantra as they are called in India, are protective devices worn around the body, or placed next to other Objects, to protect the wearer or their surroundings from various evils.

They are common in all societies and all periods of antiquity, and their use was accepted as normal by secular, religious, and "scientific" authorities (i.e., the physicians).

The list of talismans mentioned here are based on the scriptural injunctions of the Vedas including post - Vedic literatures and are made in pure stainless steel alloy casing. They are for the specific purpose mentioned.

1. THE ULTIMATE SRI RADHA KRISHNA KAVACHAM - 23.95 Gold Gilding - Also called Sri Sudarshan Chakra Kavacha. This kavacha (armor) is explained In the Brihat Tantra Sara, a large compilation of tantrik rites. Here Krishna appears as a fully-flowered tantrika devata, with his own yantra, gayatri, mantra and puja or ritual which uses this Kavacha.

It is considered to inspire the wearer to achieve revelation, enlightenment and unity with the highest Being. Arranged on a diagram of lotus flower it introduces peace which brings power and makes every action successful. Symbol of the Absolute, the union of all wisdom.

Other uses are to ward off illnesses; it heals the ten major organs of the human body and is responsible for sound condition of the whole body. The structure of this Kavacha is intended to marshal divine powers to stop new diseases from entering the body and to eliminate the existing ones.

Also inspires the wearer to follow the wheel of life; follow the wheel of duty to race and kin, to friend and foe, and to close the mind to pleasures as to pain and exhaust the law of Karmic retribution.

The scriptures recommend the wearer to be on "The Heart Hand of Krishna", symbol of activity, power and a person's fate kept in God's palm. Also regarded as an armor that moves one's fate to deal a "lucky hand", provides only true and affectionate friends and the ability to make right choices. The most highly recommended Kavacha (Armor) in this era of Kali Yuga.
